George Jackson

The Falls: The Grass is Always Greener (The Falls small town mystery series Book 22) George Jackson Amy Barnes has done the improbable: quit her job as an FBI Agent and moved to The Falls! Looking for a better, more meaningful life, a life where she can find love, build relationships and relax and share the experiences and laughter only a small town can bring, Amy quits her position and moves to West Sugar Shack Falls. Yamato, already a bit wary of the relationship between Cash and Amy, is not happy, to say the least, with the arrangement. While Yamato's trying to sort out her feelings, a lifelong criminal finds out that Barnes is no longer an FBI agent and comes looking for revenge. At the same time, Sean, William and Serafina head off to Scotland to find out what their great uncle Liam might have left them! Parnell, Louis and Raymond are accused of harassing an old Big Horned Ram! The ever present community members weave their way in and around each of the plot lines as always. This is the 22nd volume of The Falls small town mystery series. So, kick back in an easy chair, pour yourself a steaming cup of Earl Grey and return to The Falls!
