THIS SIDE OF INNOCENCE (HARDCOVER) ~ BY TAYLOR CALDWELL Taylor Caldwell

A beautiful flawless copy, First Edition, Published 1946, Mint Condition This Side of Innocence (1946) by Taylor Caldwell, about rich and powerful New York families in the Gilded Age. Sequel to That Side of Guilty..... This beautifully written novel is set in one of the most intriguing times in American history. Shortly after the Civil War, as our country came brutally face to face with industrialization, no one could answer where all this progress would take us as a nation. Could this mark the end of the aristocracy and social elite, forced to make way for this new emerging America? Interwoven into this facinating view of one privileged family's conflicts with these issues is a story of romance, morality and personal courage. This is the hardcover stated Scribner's First Edition from 1946. Both the cover (no dj) and the book are in excellent condition. There are no rips, tears, markings, etc.---and the pages and binding are tight.
