WHAT IF GETTING ALL YOU'D EVER WANTED...

Oncology nurse Annie Ward has spent her whole life competing with her older sister, Emily, in every single thing. For over five years, she listened to her sister's complaints and watched as Josh was barely appreciated. Left to the sidelines, her only option was to become best friends with the man of her dreams, with hope that the tide would turn in her favor someday.

That day came when Emily met her perfect match and finally pulled the plug on her relationship with Josh. Annie offered him a shoulder to cry on, and they realized there was already a lot more than friendship between them.

...DIDN'T TURN OUT HOW YOU HAD EXPECTED?

But when you're in love with your sister's ex, the road to happiness is never smooth, even if he loves you back. Just as they're moving forward, a family crisis brings a familiar face back to Annie's orbit, and a past Josh would rather forget is resurrected. Will their love survive the pressure and last a lifetime? Finding love after five years of friendship might just be the easiest part.
