Judge Matthew Grayson stands on an uncompromising pedestal of integrity. No excuses for disobeying the law are to be tolerated, until his beloved wife Debra disappears. Then, all bets are off. He will commit any crime to get her back.

As Debra, victim of a foiled kidnapping plot awakens in the hospital she hears voices talking about harvesting her organs. Suffering from amnesia, she has no document to identify her. She manages to escape and, as her memory slowly returns, has to resort to extraordinary measures to survive in ways hitherto undreamed of in her previous life of luxury, where her only concerns were the well-being of her husband and stepchildren, Ellen and Neil.

If she finds her way home, Matthew will have to wrestle with his conscience. Due to his nefarious activities while searching for her, he discovers that the man accused of kidnapping her is innocent. But if he tells the authorities what he knows he'll be incarcerated, a risk he can't afford to take until he finds Debra. Then, if reunited, will he allow an innocent man to pay for a crime Matthew knows he didn't commit? And if she tells him of her horrifying experiences, after she's suffered so much, can he risk going to prison and abandoning her? Or his children, who suffered equally as they searched for their beloved stepmother?
