Things are looking up for Val Valentyn. After their great success at stumbling on to the identity of the real killer of Val's boss, she and her friends, Julie and Rose, have opened their own private detective agency. And after only six weeks in business they're starting to make a name for themselves. There is that minor problem of the client who says she is going to sue, but you can't please everyone.

So, when a woman asks them to find her mother's killer, they're not about to let the fact that they know almost nothing about solving a murder stop them from taking the case. How hard can it be?

Comatoast is the second book in the humorous Val Valentyn series.
