This book does exactly as the title says. “Look Fab! Be Great! A Complete Guide on How to get Ahead in the World of Modelling”. It takes you on a modelling journey. From the why you want to be a model and what you have to offer, what you want to achieve, be it fun, a living or a career, all the way through to organising your own photo shoots, brand, and marketing yourself. It is a guide to becoming a complete, professional package, in addition to the posing or looking good, which lets face it, anyway can do if they want to. The book has been written from the experience of a photographer and studio owner who has worked with a whole variety of models, from the beginner to experienced published models. It is also written from the point of view of a professional who has worked in industry and commerce for over 20 years and knows just how you need to behave, act and sell yourself, in order to get along in business and succeed. As a model, either starting out or established, following the advice in this book will help make you a better and more professional. Someone people will be pleased to work with again, and recommend you to others. As a parent of a wannabe model, the book will help give your offspring some focus and guidance in order to get ahead and make a go of being a model. It will stop you making the common mistakes made by far too many new models. This book is written chronologically in a format so you can quickly skim through and read the main bullet points of each chapter, or read the chapter in detail. This allows you to get going more quickly. Of course, you can dip in or out of chapters as you require, but you should really read all the chapters in order to maximise your potential.
