Lisa Hockemeyer, Gillo Dorfles

The Hockemeyer Collection, which has been growing strongly for over 25 years, presents new especially selected standard works of 20th Century Italian ceramics. This volume documents the overflowing wealth of ideas, shapes, and decorative techniques used by 23 of the greatest artists of Italy between the late 1920's and the mid-80's, with which they show their affinity for the material and provide endless possibilities of expression. All pieces are individually commented on and pictured in the book using exquisite large-format photographs. English, German and Italian text.
