Astor Place Vintage tells a story of an antique clothes linking up the fate of two women who are apart for a century's time. In 2007, the boss of the antique clothes shop Amanda pays a visit to Jane Kelly who is at an advanced age. Unexpectedly, the things Jane wants to sell will reveal a lost history and a hidden secret: Olive lives in the New York 100 years ago and she walks on the same street and stands in the same room with Amanda though they are apart by the 100 years. They both pursue independence, they are both rich business geniuses and they both have to face the challenges of the times as females. Their roads of life have been linked in an unimaginable way.
