Ho-hum, nothing much ever happens to Violet Bannerman, a pretty but shy 16-year-old living in the very small, miles-from-anywhere town of Port St. Rouges, Florida. But then a dark, sexy stranger with an exotic name comes into the movie theatre where she works. The two soon become instant friends, maybe more than that. Finally, something is happening to Violet in boring old Port St. Rouges. At long last, life is interesting. There is only one tiny little problem: on the very same night Violet's stranger comes a-calling, one of her friends is brutally murdered outside of town. The quiet teenager is reluctant to tell her new friend. Surely no one as handsome and impeccably mannered as Damon Salvatore has ever been involved in anything quite as horrible as murder. Before long, Damon's younger brother, Stefan is in town. And hot-blood murder is suddenly in season in tropical Florida.
