Lorinda Mayfield seems to have it all – youth, beauty, and enormous talent as a painter and sculptress. But she hasn't been lucky in love. Her husband Matt died at an early age and she has had no one to take his place since then. Perhaps the circumstances would have been palatable if she had not been visited in her sleep by an ancestor. A woman from the past, Anani of the Jaguar Tribe, tells Lorinda that she is the last of their line. Without Lorinda's offspring, their line will not be eligible for eternity on the last day of earth. Is it possible that Lorinda can find the man who can give her the love she waits for and the children Anani has convinced her she needs? This is the fourth and final book in the Tribe of the Jaguar series. Or will Lorinda be the last of Anani's line?
