Having a successful marriage is even more complicated than planning the perfect wedding. Only after the bride has taken her long-anticipated march down that aisle and said "I do, " is she faced with the reality of married life. In some ways, building a good marriage is like building a house--starting with a solid foundation, adding the framework carefully, until you have a haven that can weather the storm of time. "Marriage Made Simple" is a charming collection of time-tested advice. Its small chapters are devoted to the wide range of virtues that are needed for a successful marriage, from encouragement in "A Pat on the Back, " and acceptance in "Warts and All, " to spontaneity in "Dance by the Light of the Moon, " affection in "A Spoonful a Day, " and communication in "Leave the Light On." Sprinkled with quotes from Ann Landers, Kahlil Gibran, and everyday people who have learned important lessons on love, this book will provide inspiration and reaffirmation to couples in all stages of creating the marriage of their dreams.
