"If you've been gypped, jacked or taken advantage of, don't take your problem to the law. You take it to Mr. Action!" For years, readers and listeners at their wit's end have turned to Vic Panini to level the playing field, burying someone under it when necessary. No problem was too small and no solution was too unrestrained. Though he's gone by many aliases — The Motor City Marauder, The Wayne County Coroner, The Vasectomizer — he's best known to the huddled masses as simply, Mr. Action! Now, for the first time, Vic shares stories of his youth, those ingredients that made him the caring altruistic felon we've come to know and trust, in this heavily redacted tome. Includes scripts from more than 50 of his Detroit radio shows.
