Finding My Way Lisa Dumas Harris

Angel Wesley, the only child of a drug-addicted mother grows up in the West Savannah's Projects lonely, confused, and sad. Despite years of abuse and watching her mother lead an unproductive life, Angel refuses to be a victim of circumstance. She's determined to be a strong, black woman. With the help of her friends Kim, Lynn, Michelle, and Wanda, Angel finds strength to overcome her upbringing, but it wasn't until she meets striving entrepreneur Derrick Simmons, that her life would change forever. Derrick introduces Angel to a love she has never known, and for the first time in her life, she feels complete. However, along with their priceless romance come numerous speed bumps, potholes, and a variety of twists and turns.
