Are you a motivational speaker who wants to have more speaking gigs? Do you find that your speaking engagements are sporadic or almost non-existent? Are you not getting your ideal audiences?

Get ready to learn how, in this 53 page book, to get connected to the right people to get speaking gigs and get known as the go-to person in your space.

When you follow these 21 tips taught by 2 industry insiders you will learn what the busy motivational and public speakers do to be on platforms every week, and how you can become one of them.

Together we have almost 30 collective years working with top motivational speakers such as Anthony Robbins, T. Harv Eker, Alex Mandossian, Chris Howard and Dr. Demartini.

We have also worked closely with promoters, conference booking agents and speakers associations around the world. Plus we are both speakers ourselves.

We cover all perspectives from what the seminar promoters want to what the organizers of private events and expos look for in their keynote speakers.

We also answer 6 key questions about getting yourself booked as a motivational and public speaker:

- How do you get agents and promoters to love what you do?
- How can you use the three P method to get booked?
- Where can you hang-out with the people who count?
- How do you harness the appreciation from your fans?
- How can you give away your stuff and still get found by the right people?
- How to open the doors to a hungry crowd of agents and promoters?

Through our various online marketing techniques that are easy to follow and implement, we will give you the blueprint that many speakers are now using to get themselves a ridiculous amount of speaking gigs.

You don't have to be an internet expert to start using these 21 tips now. (in fact we have thrown in a few extra ones too)

Each chapter is packed with tips and direct links to incredible resources. They also include a bonus video that boosts the impact of those resources should you want even more results. You don't even have to do everything in each chapter to still get good results.

Our techniques and methods have been responsible for thousands of bookings of speaker gigs around the world, and until now, have been a closely guarded secret.

Working with over 100 public and motivational speakers personally and hearing their success stories we are sharing a compilation of what works. By also working with dozens of promoters, the resources we chose are what the industry decision makers use to find speakers.

Don't let your speaking calendar remain empty any longer. You are leaving money on the table. Take action now!

There are hundreds of people trying to start a speaking business every day. By positioning yourself first you have a better chance in being the preferred speaker for that topic.

Our first chapter will put you on the path to an exciting speaking career.
