The Story of the Irish Race: A Popular History of Ireland Seumas MacManus

In The Story of the Irish Race, Seuman MacManus presents the whole saga of the Irish from the earliest times to our own, It is at once a work of sound scholarship and as easy to read as a superb novel, for it is beautifully written. MacManus gives not only facts and dates and names, but a real sense of the mind and temperamet of a people... Nicely bound volume with forest green leatherette boards and gilt lettering on the spine. Tight binding, clear and crisp paging with no markings, writing, or soiling. One lightly bumped corner. Book would otherwise be graded fine. Jacket is completely intact. Show moderate edgewear at top from poor storage. There is a 1" inch closed tear on top back edge, a 1/4" closed tear at back corner, and a 1" closed tear at front bottom. Creased front flap. Bright and shiny with just a tad of rub. Revised, 29th printing stated. in protective sleeve to further preserve. Note: stock image shown is NOT correct. The jacket is pale green with kelly green art and printing.
