Faith Without Works is Dead Jerold C. Potter

Faith Without Works is Dead will help you understand how we as Christians will have to couple together both faith and works if we are going to live the overcoming and victorious Christian life. As Christians, we need to know that faith will not do you any personal good unless it is coupled with works. Some of the points covered in the book include: 1) The Father of the Faithful – the story of Abraham, 2) The necessity for prayer and study to grow spiritually, 3) Healing for yourself and others since healing is a covenant benefit, 4) How faith and love work together, 5) How the doer of God's word is blessed, and 6) The necessity of forgiveness for those who have wronged us. Throughout this reader-friendly book, there are many examples of how faith has produced results when it is coupled together with works. This book will edify and inspire you to great faith, and greatness.
