Catequesis del íncubo: Accésit Premio Internacional de Poesía Casa de Teatro 2000 (Spanish Edition)

José Acosta

"Catequesis del íncubo" es uno de los tres poemarios con que el escritor dominicano José Acosta ganó el Accésit Premio Internacional de Poesía Casa de Teatro en el año 2000, lo que representó un hecho sin precedentes en la historia de este importante certamen literario. Es un libro desgarrador, profundo, del alta calidad estética, en el que el hablante lírico penetra las regiones del bien y el mal y contrapone al ser humano ante el abismo de la incertidumbre. Así empieza "Catequesis del íncubo": I El universo resuena como llovizna sobre el agua, imperceptible como el susurro de un árbol al crecer. Estamos encerrados en una dimensión oscura; la noche es la sombra de una pared lejana; Dios vive del otro lado. No te has preguntado ¿a quién le ladran los perros? ¿Qué ven que tú no puedes descubrir con tu linterna? Es al sonido de la eternidad, al espacio que tú sólo conoces en sueños y crees irreal. Es a él mismo a quien el perro le ladra, al ladrido que rebota al colisionar con la noche y regresa irreconocible. Es a ti a quien le ladran los perros, a tu presencia que por tus pensamientos se desborda llenando la Tierra de murmullos.
