If Bible Stories Were Reported in Today's Headlines... is a study guide that creatively borrows from contemporary media reporting styles to imagine twenty-first-century "headlines" for Bible stories and verses. It presents the reader with the opportunity to search for spiritual treasures found within the pages of the Holy Bible and match Bible verses with "headlines" as they might be reported by modern media outlets. Ancient stories are paired with the news information style of thirty-second sound bites, screaming headlines, and the "we interrupt" breathlessness that are so familiar in today's world.
