Single and Christian

Single and Christian

Do you ever feel lonely because you are single? You are not alone; societal pressures to be in a relationship are everywhere. However, singleness doesn't have to be a season of fruitless waiting and frustration. Creflo Dollar's newest relationship book addresses the unrealistic expectations of Christian singles in today's society.

Encouragement for Christian Singles

This book is truly designed to help you maximize your singleness and receive your heart's desire. God knows what you think about. He knows what you dream about and what you wish for. It's not wrong to dream about and wish for love! And guess what? Both things are inside the will of God. He wants you to share and have love, which is why He wants to help you discover a romantic relationship that is built on love.

Maximize Your Singleness

If you're single, be encouraged and excited about how God is going to use your free time, today! Singleness is a supernatural gift from God and not something to be disheartened by. The apostle Paul labeled singleness as a part of life where God can use a person fully. While being in the right romantic relationship can help you grow with God, being single can help you grow on your own with God! And that's a good thing! This book will help you reach your full potential in singleness and become the person God meant for you to be today!

Empower yourself with this teaching and experience fulfillment, now!
