About Jennifer McLean

Internationally acclaimed author, speaker, and entrepreneur, Jennifer McLean is a spiritual catalyst. Intelligent, heart-centered and mindful Jennifer works with the acclaimed masters from the transformational thought and wellness communities, amplifying their teachings at a level her audience can absorb, no matter where they are in their own spiritual journey. This valuable amplification skill combined with Jennifer's intention to be a beacon of love, peace and light, has allowed her, in a few short years, to build a successful international business from the ground up.

A part time healer for more than 18 years Jennifer matched her dichotomous careers as a marketing and business strategist AND her part time healing practice to create a unique business opportunity... using sound business practices to create an online health and wellness empire.

The ultimate goal is to act as a conduit and an amplifier to share her and others sacred inspirations and visions on a large scale to encourage and empower shifts in perception for increased global consciousness. Jennifer through McLean MasterWorks is committed to the growth and evolvment of those who interact with the company and its products and services... nurturing all of our unique human potential and creating forgiveness, release, financial abundance and joy along the way. Jennifer shares new models of consciousness shining the light of, "the art of life mastery" to all.

As a healer, she has studied in three disciplines of energy healing including Craniosacral, her own body Dialoging technique and sound healing therapies through toning, and soul songs.

She is also a marketer and is the author of The Credibility Factor. Jennifer's dichotomous experience as a healer and marketing professional afforded her unique insights into the multiple models people use to manage their worlds.

Jennifer's unique body dialoging healing method was covered in Joe Vitale's best-selling book, The Key, with over 500,000 copies sold. This book included her techniques for clearing old, unwanted beliefs, and thoughts that get stuck in the body as emotional blockages limiting expression and human potential.

Jennifer also contributed a chapter in the new book by Keith Leon, Who Do You Think You Are along with Jack Canfield, Bob Procter and John Gray, and is also included in John Assaraf's, The Vision Board Book.

As an author, Jennifer created The BIG Book of YOU exploring her inner spiritual world and how it works with her outer world. Throughout her life, it became clearer to her, that seeming opposites are all contained within the One. The book was born out of that perception and through word and image it juxtaposes all of life.

The BIG Book of YOU compares and explores the light and the dark of who we are. If we are all one then we are all that we see before us both "good" and "bad." It would be valuable to acknowledge that what we perceive as bad is available to us so that we can release it, knowing it isn't really bad, it just is. The book helps to nudge us in the direction of acknowledging the dark while celebrating the light. Keeping these concepts—dark and light—so close together in the poetry makes it energetically easier to assimilate, find balance and let go.
